No. 336 Broadway, New York.

ENGLISH HEARTS AND ENGLISH HANDS: OR THE
RAILWAY AND THE TREASURY. By the author of "The Member of Parliament." A work which has been accompanied by an earnest Christian man who has illustrated by the incidents of this volume. Many of these incidents are peculiarly touching and instructive. [Prof. Churchill.]

MEMORIES OF GENNIFAREY, WITH THE MORMONS;
Being the Narrative of Mrs. M. ETTIE V. SMITH, late a Great Salt Lake City, a Sister of one of the Mormons.

BY N. W. GREEN.

One vol. 12mo. $1.25.

This volume is the "Narrative of the painful Fifteen Years' Experience of one whose lot in early childhood was cast among the Mormons, who enjoyed peculiar opportunities to observe the irregularities of their system. Such a disclosure of the corruptions of human nature, raised and developed by a fanatic delusion in the full blaze of Christian civilization, is unparalleled in history. A work of great interest to the press, and a form of poison in an ancient or modern times never unseated more injurious ones or engendered a more degrading state of society. The truth and accuracy of the statements is not only attested by the names, histories, dates, and places mentioned, but also by the facts themselves."
